

Meet Corey Brown

Born and raised in the intercity of Baltimore, I came to understand the American Dream of desiring to be a Homeowner and raising a family in a positive environment.

I was fortunate to progress beyond my beginnings and obtain the position of Property Manager with the Department of Public Works for the city of Baltimore. Reflections of the past have created within me a true passion and determination to help others accomplish their Homeownership Dreams, as well.

Buying or selling a home is a major event in one's life and my life experiences and expertise in the housing industry equips me to successfully assist my clients in achieving that goal.

I have worked hard to establish myself in the Real Estate Industry as a Professional who handles himself with integrity. Ongoing communications and transparency provides the best possible experience for buyers and sellers. Making sure that the process is smooth and seamless is the cornerstone of my success.

Being highly skilled at the following tasks further enhances my ability to provide Superior Service and establish life-long relationships with my clients:

- * Delivering accurate Comparative Market Analysis's.
- * Providing financial information and analytical data relevant to the market.
- * Showing diverse properties and having the ability to explain the constructions details.
- * Accurately discuss the costs with associated with maintaining a property and possible renovations.
- * Determine best method of purchase and review financials.
- * Working with loan officers, attorneys, and agencies to facilitate a transaction.

Whether Buying or Selling Real Estate you deserve the Very Best Representation.
