

Meet Dana Van Brakle

Born in Washington, DC and residing in the Metropolitan area has afforded be the opportunity to know the demographics and trends of such an evolving area. I count it a blessing to serve prospective homeowners in their pursuit for the perfect place to call home. As a young man, I had the privilege of earning a Bachelor's degree in Computer Science and later a M.S. in Management Information Systems and Computer Systems Applications both from American University.

Continuing to strive I furthered my education by attending the Maple Springs Bible College and Seminary earning a Master's in Biblical Studies, Master of Divinity, and a Doctorate in Ministry. Today I am an ordained Minister (Elder) and a bible college and seminary professor.

As an IT Deputy Program Manager with the Federal Aviation Administration and as a Senior Consultant with various companies in the private sector, I have extensive experience in leading a team to implement a system or a project. I also have many certifications including PMI PMP (Project Management Professional) certification.

I have been a Real Estate agent for over 25 years and affiliated with several companies and can honestly say that being a part of the New Vision Realty Elite Team is by far the highlight of my Real Estate Career. I have always been concerned and dedicated to being an element of change and being a source of strength for those seeking the American Dream of Homeownership. I now possess the experience, skills and a superlative platform to strategically lead others in obtaining the best property, best location at the best price in the Washington Metropolitan area.

My customers and clients will vouch that I provide comprehensive, exceptional buyer and seller Representation and with Credit Restoration for those in need.

I believe that everything rises and falls upon leadership and communication is key when developing all relationships. I understand the importance of constant support of my clients, whether you are local or relocating to the area, you deserve the best.

When you consider making a real estate transaction, please allow me the opportunity to show you how I can be a servant leader and prove that I care enough to provide the very best for those I serve.
