

Meet Randolph Scott

Born and raised in the intercity of Baltimore and continuing to reside in the state of Maryland is a tribute to my appreciation for what this area has to offer. While I have ventured out to the suburbs to enjoy a more laid back environment, I often can be found working with individuals especially Real Estate Investors involved in intercity initiatives focused on community rehabilitation. Being a former Project Manager with over 15 years in the Architectural Commercial Construction field solidifies my ability to effectively consult my clients and customer on the matters of construction and provide insight as to pitfall that often surface during a property inspection.

As a Realtor® I am held at a Higher Code of Ethics and my specialties are facilitating transaction involving short sell and Accelerated Sales and Marketing of Distressed Properties including REO's. Having the ability to offer properties on an Auction Platform whether online or live provides a unique opportunity to be extremely assertive in obtaining a Real Estate goal for Sellers.

I am currently listing a wide variety of properties and working with asset managers, individual property owners, and lenders. Being in this position creates a powerful insight for strategizing when I am in the position of Buyer's Agent, providing Exclusive Representation for my clients.

I also provide needed financial services to individuals and families that insure that their financial portfolios are in order. My services include: Credit Restoration, Wills & Living Trust as well as Identity Protection.

My past customers will vouch that I am a Real Estate Professional that is knowledgeable and trustworthy, now I would like offer to you that same elite standard of customer service that has come to be expected from me or any member of NVR Elite Realtor Team.
